

24 July 2017

FOBAS Announcement: FOBAS DHL Account Number Change - 950230542

Applicability:

All FOBAS Clients and Vessels

Further to our previous announcement on 10th July regarding all communications relating to FOBAS logistics enquiries being directed to the new email address FOBASsamples@Ir.org we are pleased to confirm that most of our contacts are now using the new address.

This announcement serves as a reminder to anyone still not using the new email address to start doing so with immediate effect.

In addition to this, we also need to ensure that all samples are shipped under the correct DHL account number. To assist with this, we request that the vessels do the following:

- 1) Destroy any pre-printed Airway Bills included in sample kits or doc packs with DHL account number 951848827
- 2) When handing bunker samples to the shipping agent, hand them a copy of this announcement and advise them that the sample is to be shipped under DHL Account number 950230542
- 3) Ensure that FOBAS is notified of the sample by emailing the completed Sample Collection Form (attached separately) to FOBASsamples@lr.org

This is the second in a series of changes with more coming soon and will further update you in the coming weeks.
